

“Spring Swing” An All American Music Concert Portland Chamber Orchestra

PCO is supporting the Returning Veterans Project by generously donating 50 tickets to the final concerts of the season (April 25th and April 26th) to: Post 9/11 war zone veterans and their family members, and RVP Volunteer Practitioners

Maestro Yaacov Bergman leads “the intimate symphony with infinite imagination” on their innovative presentation of All American music at Lewis & Clark College. The concerts will feature rock violinist and composer, Aaron Meyer and jazz guitarist, Tim Ellis. Soprano Nicole Greenidge Joseph sings Samuel Barber’s Knoxville, Summer of 1915 and selections from Bernstein’s West Side Story. She is joined by Portland Tenor, Brian Tierney and the Lewis & Clark College Cappella Nova Choir, directed by Katherine Fitzgibbon.

Program

- Aaron Meyer - Rock On!
Aaron Meyer, Rock Violinist and Tim Ellis, Guitar Guru
- Samuel Barber–Knoxville, Summer of 1915
Nicole Greenidge Joseph, Soprano
- Leonard Bernstein – Selections from “West Side Story”
Nicole Greenidge Joseph, Soprano (Maria) and Brian Tierney, Tenor (Tony)
Cappella Nova Choir (the “Sharks” and the “Jets”)

Tim Ellis, Guitarist

Aaron Meyer, Violinist

Nicole Greenidge,
Soprano

Brian Tierney, Tenor

Performances:

April 25, 7:30 pm - Agnes Flanagan Chapel, Lewis & Clark College, Portland, Or.
April 26, 3:00 pm - Agnes Flanagan Chapel, Lewis & Clark College, Portland, Or.

To order free tickets:

1. call Brenda Ziegler @ 503-314-5834
 - A. I am calling to reserve free Returning Veterans Project tickets.
 - B. My name is ____.
 - C. I would like ____ free tickets.
 - D. The concert date I will attend is ____ (April 25th or April 26th)